Clan Bane

You must spend the day by your chosen charge, by whatever it is you rule. If you do not, you sustain 2 aggravated Willpower damage upon waking the following night.

Clan Compulsion

Covetousness

You become obsessed with possessing something in the scene, desiring to add it to your proverbial hoard. This can be anything from an object to a piece of property to an actual person. Any action not taken toward this purpose incurs a two-dice penalty. The Compulsion persists until ownership is established (the Storyteller decides what constitutes ownership in the case of a non-object) or the object of desire becomes unattainable.
